We can't solve problems by using the same kind of thinking we used
when we created them.

-Albert Einstein

My position

We can't solve problems by
thinking we used
when we created them.

Sustainability Education = Solutions

What Listening Means in a Time of Climate Crisis

-Tara Houska

Where does that put me as an individual? As a sustainability educator?

Where does that put sustainability as a concept/field?
